

28th international Vechtrace 2019 Saturday, October 5th Gramsbergen, the Netherlands

The International Vecht Race (hereafter referred to as: 'Vecht Race') is a border crossing time trial over five kilometres for skiffs (singles), doubles, coxed fours (sweep and quad) and coxed C-four. The race is international because of the contestants as well as the course. The course runs on the river Vecht, downstream from Germany, finishing in Holland.

The race is renowned for its relaxed atmosphere, the great catering and the scenic river Vecht. Organising clubs are the Gramsbergen Rowing club 'Salland' and Bootsclub Nordhorn. Further information is available from www.vechtrace.nl

Entries, using the entry-form available from our website, will be accepted up to 7:00pm CET on 1 Oct 2019 at vechtrace@gmail.com

The draw will be posted there on 2 Oct 9pm CET.

